What the student has achieved:

[Name hidden] is a hard-working student who has applied herself well so far this year. She has shown dedication to learning the new vocabulary for each topic and to improving her pronunciation. She pays attention in class and is helpful to her classmates.

Areas of strength:

[Name hidden]'s writing is excellent and it is clear that she knows her basic verbs well.

Areas for improvement/future learning:

[Name hidden] needs to improve her confidence when speaking. It is important for her to have the courage to speak, even if she isn't sure that she has structured her answer correctly.

What the school will do to help the student learn and develop:

In class this term we will continue to develop the students' confidence in speaking by having them work in small groups to write and perform a short dialogue using a prompt.

What you can do at home to help the student's progress:

Continue to speak to [Name hidden] in Estonian. Try to find movies which interest her which have Estonian audio or subtitles—many of the recent Marvel movies are available in this format. Watch the movies with her and ask her simple questions about the movie afterwards. This is a wonderful way to increase vocabulary and confidence.
